

Contents

| | |
|--|----|
| Foreword by Dame Jocelyn Bell Burnell | 4 |
| 1 Planning | 5 |
| Best time of year and weather | 5 |
| Which direction? | 6 |
| How long will it take? | 6 |
| Accommodation and refreshments | 7 |
| Navigation, waymarking and previous experience | 8 |
| Getting there and away | 9 |
| Terrain and gradients | 11 |
| Responsible access | 12 |
| Livestock, walkers and dogs | 12 |
| Local words, placenames and pronunciation | 12 |
| Packing checklist | 13 |
| 2 Background information | |
| 2:1 England in the 17th century | 14 |
| 2:2 George Fox and Quakerism | 17 |
| 2:3 Geology and scenery | 22 |
| 2:4 Habitats and wildlife | 26 |
| 3 The Way in detail | |
| 3:1 Barley to Sawley | 31 |
| 3:2 Sawley to Malham | 37 |
| 3:3 Malham to Buckden | 47 |
| 3:4 Buckden to Far Gearstones | 54 |
| 3:5 Far Gearstones to Sedbergh | 60 |
| 3:6 Sedbergh: to the Cross Keys | 68 |
| 3:7 Sedbergh: the Quaker Trail | 71 |
| 4 Reference | |
| Further reading and Quakers in Britain | 78 |
| Useful websites, transport, weather and daylight | 78 |
| Dates and calendars | 79 |
| Acknowledgements and photo credits | 79 |
| Index | 80 |